

Sim Nabors, LEED AP ID+C
Interior Design Discipline Leader

Selected Relevant Experience

- Busey Bank Renovation, Champaign, IL
- Lindbergh School Residential Repurposing, Indianapolis, IN
- Carle Foundation Hospital ECHO Facility, Urbana, IL
- NCAA Headquarters Expansion, Indianapolis, IN
- Indiana University Eugene & Marilyn Glick Eye Institute, Indianapolis, IN
- Town of Normal Multimodal Transportation Center, Normal, IL

RATIO

Project Leadership

As the Interior Design Discipline Leader, Sim brings more than 14 years of interior design experience to RATIO projects. Sim is a firm believer in creating spaces that encourage collaboration, playfulness and social responsibility.

Inspired by the story each design communicates and the meaningful impact it can have on the community, Sim utilizes his artistic and technical talents to create unique, functional designs that support the organization's values and goals.

Education & Registration

- University of Louisville / Louisville, KY / Bachelor of Fine Arts, Interior Design
- Registered Interior Designer, State of IN
- LEED Accredited Professional

Publications & Presentations

- Facilities Magazine, "Repurposing Office Space for Maximum Impact," May 2009
- Keynote Speaker, Indiana State University School of Interior Design, 2009

Community Leadership & Professional Affiliations

- Member, United States Green Building Council, Indiana Chapter